

The Friends of the Bronxville Public Library invite you to Celebrate the career of Dustin Hoffman

The Graduate April 10

Mr. McGuire: I just want to say one word to you - just one word.

Ben: Yes sir.

Mr. McGuire: Are you listening?

Ben: Yes I am.

Mr. McGuire: 'Plastics.'

Coming of age in an age of alienation, Hoffman's Ben Braddock is confused and drifting. Perhaps an affair with Mrs. Robinson is just what he needs to straighten himself out. A role that helped define the time. (1967)

Oscars for Best Picture, Screenplay, Director and Actor. Tom Cruise and Hoffman as two brothers with communication difficulties, one autistic and the other narcissistic. Hoffman shines in a role that might have been limiting for a lesser actor. His portrayal of Raymond Babbitt is both funny and deeply moving. (1988)

Rain Man May 8

Last Chance Harvey May 22

A wonderful film starring Dustin Hoffman and Emma Thompson. What starts out as an all-time worst day ever turns into something very different. Not as well known as the other films we're showing, this is one you shouldn't miss. Hoffman and Thompson, two people who each fear they may have missed out, prove that you do get more than one chance to get it right. (2008)
